At the same time we state:

- As ordering party, we are purchaser/importer of the declared goods.
- We are authorized to the full VAT deduction.
- We are aware that by registration of the customs declaration we become the applicant according to the customs law. We commit ourselves to remit all tax payments including possible tax penalties, customs fines and extra charges for late payment, which we have to represent.
- If a required certificate of origin is not available at the moment of customs declaration, we commit ourselves to remit immediately tax payments, which LGI Logistics Group International therefore had paid for us in advance at customs office.
- We are responsible for the completeness and correctness of all documents and data necessary for the processing of the orders.
- The agent has the right to delegate his power of attorney.
- We take over all incurred additional expenses (including 2% disbursement fee as well as postages/paper).
